

Debt Advice

Foundation

A Registered Charity - Number 1095705

MONEY DIARIES FEEDBACK

"The girls' work was ideal to give children an introduction into finance and handling money. It is beautifully presented, very well written and informative."

Education Minister - Rt Hon Ed Balls MP

"The Money Diaries book is an extremely useful teaching aid; it breaks down two complex issues – debt and saving - into language and illustrations that our pupils can understand."

Andy Purcell - Head Teacher, St Georges CE Primary School

"Money Diaries is proving popular with pupils and teachers across Lancashire's primary schools. It's a really useful educational tool which works because it is written by youngsters for youngsters in a language they can understand."

Brian Souter - Deputy Head Teacher, Southlands

"I think that the "MONEY diaries are fantastic and a great idea to help children to understand how to manage money."

Charlotte Smith - PSHEE and Citizenship Consultant, the Lincolnshire School Improvement Service

"The Money Diaries have been extremely useful both in terms of providing learning materials for our pupils as well as some of our feeder primary schools and we look forward to receiving the third edition."

Janet Walsh - Head Teacher, Colne Primet High School

"The Money Diaries have been an excellent addition to our Citizenship resources. The pupils have thoroughly enjoyed reading the diaries and have been able to identify with the characters. It has led to them discuss money issues and certainly raised their awareness of such issues. Also they are very useful for Key Stage Two literacy and diary writing."

Brenda Bolton - Year 6 Teacher, Longshaw Primary School